Ambassador Felix Schnyder
Embassy of Switzerland
2900 Cathedral Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20008

Dear Ambassador Schnyder:

I am writing as you have suggested to confirm the outlines of our agreement concerning legal representation of the Swiss Embassy.

You have informed me that the Swiss authorities have authorized you to avail yourself of my professional services on such problems as you in your discretion might desire assistance from time to time, whereas in the past these services have related only to certain specified Swiss industry problems.

In payment for our services, we will send you a statement for $4,000.00 at the end of each calendar quarter. If, at the end of any quarter, our charges, computed at our normal hourly rates, exceed the amount of the quarterly retainer, we will report such excess to you. At the end of each calendar year, we will send you a bill for the amount by which our charges for the year exceed the sum of the quarterly retainers.

We will also send you a bill quarterly for our out-of-pocket expenses.

Ambassador Felix Schnyder

I understand that you are subject to a maximum budget for our services and expenses of $25,000.00 annually. I also understand that your authority is to continue this arrangement through the end of 1972, subject to termination on six months notice.

In accordance with our normal practice, we will of course attempt to identify and avoid any conflict with your interests that might be presented by our representation of another client, and in doubtful cases we will consult with you in advance.

Sincerely yours,

Robert E. Herzstein
